Two highlights worth mentioning are:

The resort recently acquired a classic 1966 39-foot Bunker & Ellis picnic boat named The Stardust, perfect for family excursions or a romantic cruise. Executive Chef Joshua Hollinger's locally-inspired picnics can be enjoyed at sunset or during a day trip around Edgartown Harbor and Chappaquiddick Island. Guests can request On the Water Dining and choose the Half Day Charter with gourmet sandwiches and snacks or an Evening Harbor Cruise with dishes like Sliced Chilled Tenderloin and Lobster Cocktail. Click here for a peek at Chef Hollinger's summer menu at the resort's The Coach House restaurant.

From mid-June through Labor Day, children between five and twelve years old can participate in the resort's new Harbor Kids program. Activities include everything from creating a treasure chest to playing croquet on the front lawn and decorating cookies with Pastry Chef Troy Himmelman. Nature walk adventures and educational field trips keep the kids engaged and having fun, which is making a big splash with longtime guests and newcomers alike.

Fall is the most beautiful time to visit Martha's Vineyard, so make your reservations early. Call (800) 225-6005. Media visits and tours can be arranged by contacting Jo Lipstadt Swani at jo@civettacom.com or 617-577-8098.

About the Harbor View Hotel & Resort

Home to one of the most spectacular views on Martha's Vineyard, the Harbor View Hotel & Resort, a member of Historic Hotels of America, is the island's only full-service hotel open year-round, offering guests unparalleled amenities and 124 beautifully appointed guest rooms and suites. The hotel lies at land's end overlooking beautiful Edgartown Harbor, the Edgartown Lighthouse and Chappaquiddick Island. Originally opened in 1891, this historical landmark offers luxury accommodations, an exceptional collection of services, fine New England dining, an outdoor swimming pool and beach access. The hotel has the only golf club partnership on the island and is able to offer its guests advance tee times at the nearby Farm Neck Golf Club. Whether you're a guest, a diner or an island wanderer, the Harbor View Hotel & Resort's wrap-around porch offers sweeping vistas for all to enjoy. For guest room reservations, call (800) 225-6005 or visit www.harbor-view.com.
